A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

PRAYER PARTNERS

This summer Trinity members will be growing our faith literacy and care for one another through a Prayer Partners initiative.

In this activity, each month those who want to participate will agree to pray for another member of the Trinity, and will be prayed for as well.

On the first Sunday of each Month, participants will learn who they will be praying for. The Pray-er will reach out to the person they will pray for.

They will ask their person if there are any prayer concerns. You may ask your partner if they care to confide in you, but should a person ask for prayers for strength, or prayers for loved ones, but does not care to elaborate, please do not push, but honor your partner's request for vagueness.

If you are a Pray-er, you will also be prayed for. Expect to be contacted as well, by the person who will be praying for you. Do not be afraid to contact your prayer partner throughout the

BEANS & FRANKS SUPPER

- 6 Frankfurters
- 1 T. butter
- 1 28oz. can of Baked Beans
- 2/3 C. catsup
- 4 Slices Bacon, partly cooked (if you like)

Halve franks crosswise and lengthwise. Saute in butter until lightly browned, drain. In 1 1/2 quart casserole alternately layer beans and franks until there are 2 layers of Beans and 2 layers of Franks.

Pour catsup over Beans, top with Bacon, Bake at 400 degrees for 30 minutes or until mixture bubbles.
